

Supportive Measures

LSU Shreveport offers supportive measures upon notice of alleged power-based violence, with or without a formal complaint. Supportive measures are non-punitive services, intended to restore and preserve an individual's access to programs or activities, without unreasonably burdening another party.

Supportive measures may include, but are not limited to:

- Counseling, medical, or other healthcare services
- Campus or local advocacy programs
- Referral to campus or local law enforcement
- Services from community-based providers
- A no contact agreement
- Relocating a student's apartment to another location of the Pilots Pointe Apartment complex
- Changing an employee's or student worker's work environment (e.g. reporting structure, office/workspace relocation)
- Academic support, extensions of deadlines, or other course related adjustments
- Alternative course completion options (e.g. Remote, Online, Incompletes, Withdrawals, etc.)
- Safety planning
- Transportation accommodations
- Student financial aid counseling
- Visa/immigration assistance
- Any other actions deemed appropriate by the Title IX Coordinator
